Good Day Permittees:

For those that haven't been to the NFH Action Blog recently, click on the following link: <http://nationalforesthomeowners.org/leadership/> . This gives updated reports on the progress in Washington DC.

The moratorium amendment was incorporated into the Appropriations Bill Thursday, and it appears this will freeze our permit fees in 2010 at the 2009 level. We await clarification on the details, wherein lies the devil.
