

WHAT: PINECREST LAKE-BOTTOM
CLEAN UP DAY

WHEN: SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 1

WHEN: 10:00 AM OR WHEN YOU GET THERE

WHAT TO BRING:

- 1) BOOTS, MUCK OR OTHERWISE,
GLOVES, HAT
- 2) LUNCH, WATER, ETC

USFS WILL SUPPLY TRASH BAGS, BUT YOU CAN BRING YOUR OWN IF YOU WANT.

COLLECTION POINT: PINECREST
MARINA BOAT LAUNCH RAMP

WHAT TO EXPECT: This will be a volunteer effort open to anyone who wants to help. There will be minimal direction and leadership, we hope people will spread out and canvas the immediate lake bottom out the deep water area, the area between the point and the dam, and along the South Shore as far as anyone wants to walk. The North Shore people may do that end/side of the lake on Sunday as time and weather permit.

GENERAL THOUGHTS: The idea will be to bag as much of the small stuff (cans, bottles, shoes, clothes, fishing gear/line, etc.) and take the bags to either the launching ramp dock at the Marina or above high water line along the lake trail.

Larger items (tires, anchors, broken boats, etc.) should be clustered as well as possible so that the trucks and motorized vehicles can pick them up. We may have yellow safety tape available to mark these items/piles.

The idea is to have fun, relax and be safe while making our favorite place a little cleaner.

CANCELATION: IF SNOW AND OR RAIN ARE HAPPENING OR REASONABLY EXPECTED TO HAPPEN ON SAT, THEN THURSDAY BEFORE WE WILL EMAIL EVERYONE ON OUR LISTS AND SUGGEST THE FOLLOWING SAT AS THE FIRST ALTERNATE. IF THERE IS SIGNIFICANT SNOW ACCUMULATION WE MAY HAVE TO POSTPONE TILL NEXT FALL.

HI; I didn't get the picture and I'm glad Molly sent you this. We spent about 5hrs total with the full 5 man crew with backhoe and Cat loader. 1 engine block two wood stove six 55 gal barrels with spikes six 20ft links of old pipe numerous concrete anchors including a concrete lid that was stolen from one of our over flow vaults at camp blue. Total of about 10yds. We can figure 10hrs equipment time at about 100 dollars an hour.

PPA got the big stuff that volunteers couldn't do. I can't say enough how awesome PPA is in my books. The picture says it all!

Kirk,

Look what a call to Jesika from you started!!! Although I am hoping for 24" of snow in the next few days, if it doesn't come, we gotta keep this going!! Thanks Kirk, I'm with you. And a big thanks to PPA today.

Hi Molly! Wouldn't you know that if we planned something like this the weather would change :).....Anyway, I do not plan on sending out a postpone/cancel message unless I hear from you (or someone) that there will be snow on the ground Sat or that it will be otherwise unpleasant b/c heavy rain, etc....

I will stay in touch, let me know if or when you get any insights...

Thanks.....Kirk
